

Map shows areas estimated to be at higher risk of landslide as a result of the earthquake, based on USGS preferred model.

The purpose of this map is to identify potential areas in need of assessment based on modelled data of impacts, and for comparison of situation found on the ground and modelled data.

Data Sources: BPS, USGS, AHA
Map created by MapAction (07/10/2018)