This map shows the number of flood-affected families settled in schools in the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Province per district. The districts are shaded according to the number of affected families and the number of schools occupied per district is shown as a graduated symbol. Only those districts reporting information have been shown.